Recalling also its resolution 54/239 A of 23 December 1999, in which it requested the Secretary-General to obtain comments and observations from the International Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia on the report of the Expert Group to conduct a review of the effective operation and functioning of the International Tribunals, and to submit them, through the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions, to the General Assembly for consideration at its resumed fifty-fourth session,

2. Endorses the observations and recommendations contained in the report of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions;[4]

3. Requests the Secretary-General to transmit to the Security Council for its consideration the report of the Expert Group,[2] together with the note by the Secretary-General transmitting comments thereon;[3]

4. Welcomes the recent improvements in the functioning of the International Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia, and encourages continued efforts to that effect;

5. Notes that work is in hand to address areas where improvement is needed, including those noted by the Expert Group and the external and internal oversight bodies;

6. Requests the Secretary-General to report to the General Assembly at its fifty-fifth session, in the context of the budget of the International Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia for 2001, reflecting the views of all organs of the Tribunal, on actions taken or to be taken to improve the functioning of the Tribunal, including in respect of the recommendations of the Expert Group that remain under review, to the extent that they can be implemented;

7. Also requests the Secretary-General to submit a comprehensive report on the results of the implementation of the recommendations of the Expert Group to the General Assembly at its fifty-sixth session;

8. Notes that the proposed budget for the International Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia for 2000 did not include provision for all the forensic experts later determined to be needed, and emphasizes that the Secretary-General should ensure that the budget proposals for the Tribunal are adequate and conform with the applicable rules and regulations and the relevant General Assembly resolutions;
